DECLARATION OF JOEL C. HAIMS

I, Joel C. Haims, hereby declare:

1. I am an attorney admitted to practice before the Courts of the State of New York and the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York and a partner with Morrison & Foerster LLP, counsel to the Debtors and Debtors in Possession. I submit this declaration in connection with the Debtors Supplemental Brief in Support of Its Objections to Motion of the Federal Housing Finance Agency for Relief from the Automatic Stay.
2. Attached as Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of the subpoena, dated August 16, 2012, issued to Homecomings Financial, LLC by the Federal Housing Finance Agency.

I declare under the penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on August 28, 2012 in New York, New York.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "J. Haims", is written over a horizontal line. The signature is stylized with a large loop at the end.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), and (e) (Effective 12/1/07)

(c) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The issuing court must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the issuing court for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the issuing court must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to travel more than 100 miles from where that person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person — except that, subject to Rule 45(c)(3)(B)(iii), the person may be commanded to attend a trial by traveling from any such place within the state where the trial is held;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the issuing court may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information;

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party; or

(iii) a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(c)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(d) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) Contempt. The issuing court may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena. A nonparty's failure to obey must be excused if the subpoena purports to require the nonparty to attend or produce at a place outside the limits of Rule 45(c)(3)(A)(ii).

Schedule A

Definitions

1. “Communications” means any transmittal and/or receipt of information, whether such was oral or written, and whether such was by chance, prearranged, formal or informal, and specifically includes, but is not limited to, conversations in person, telephone conversations, electronic mail (including instant messages and text messages), voicemail, letters, memoranda, statements, media releases, magazine and newspaper articles, and video and audio transmissions.

2. “Depositor” means the depositor of each Securitization, as identified in the attached Exhibits 3 and 4, as well as its officers, directors, agents, servants, employees, affiliates, accountants, consultants, attorneys, business units, divisions, and all other persons acting or purporting to act on its behalf.

3. “Documents” is meant in the broadest possible sense and includes, but is not limited to, any writings and includes the following items, whether printed or recorded or reproduced by any other mechanical process or written or produced by hand, including drafts: agreements; communications; correspondence; electronic mail; text messages; telegrams; memoranda; summaries, records or reports of telephone conversations, personal conversations, interviews, meetings, conferences, investigations or negotiations; opinions or reports of consultants; diaries; graphs; reports; notebooks; charts; plans; drawings; sketches; maps; photographs; film; brochures; pamphlets; advertisements; circulars; press releases; letters; faxes; any marginal comments appearing in any documents; tape recordings; electronic transmissions; computer printouts and all other writings. Documents shall not be limited in any way as to the form of storage (such as paper, microfiche, magnetic tape, magnetic disk, CD-ROM, DVD, optical disk, or other electronic-storage device). A draft or non-identical copy of a document is a separate document within the meaning of this term.

4. "Identify," with respect to a business transaction, means to give the date of the transaction, the full legal names of the parties to the transaction, and the business purpose of the transaction.

5. "Loan Files" means all files and related documents concerning the origination, underwriting, processing, closing, and servicing of any of the Mortgage Loans.

6. "Mortgage Loans" means any and all mortgage loans included in each Securitization.

7. "Mortgaged Property" means the real property or cooperative dwelling, including all improvements thereon, that served as security for each of the Mortgage Loans.

8. The words "referring," "relating to," or "concerning" mean describing, discussing, constituting, containing, considering, embodying, evaluating, mentioning, memorializing, supporting, collaborating, demonstrating, providing, showing, refuting, disputing, rebutting, controverting, contradicting, and made in connection with or by reason of or arising therefrom. The words "refer" or "relate to" mean the same as "referring" or "relating to."

9. "Securitization" or "Securitizations" means any of the securitizations listed in the attached Exhibits 1 and 2.

10. "Sponsor" means the sponsor of each Securitization, as identified in the attached Exhibits 3 and 4, as well as its officers, directors, agents, servants, employees, affiliates, accountants, consultants, attorneys, business units, divisions, and all other persons acting or purporting to act on its behalf.

11. “Trustee” means the entity acting on behalf of the trust for each Securitization, as well as its officers, directors, agents, servants, employees, affiliates, accountants, consultants, attorneys, business units, divisions, and all other persons acting or purporting to act on its behalf.

12. “Underwriter” means the underwriter of each Securitization, as identified in the attached Exhibits 3 and 4, as well as its officers, directors, agents, servants, employees, affiliates, accountants, consultants, attorneys, business units, divisions, and all other persons acting or purporting to act on its behalf.

13. “You” and “Your” means Homecomings Financial, LLC, as well as its officers, directors, agents, servants, employees, affiliates, accountants, consultants, attorneys, business units, divisions, successors, and all other persons acting or purporting to act on its behalf.

Instructions

1. In responding to this Subpoena, You are required produce all responsive documents that are in Your possession, custody, or control or in the possession, custody, or control of Your agents, employees, or other representatives. A document shall be deemed to be within Your control if You have the right to secure the document or a copy of the document from another person having possession or custody of the document.

2. In construing the requests, the singular includes the plural and vice versa, except as the context may otherwise require; any request propounded in the present tense shall also be read as if propounded in the past tense and vice versa; reference to any gender includes the other gender; the words “any” and “or” shall be construed as either conjunctive or disjunctive in such manner as will broaden as widely as possible the scope of any request; the word “all” means “any and all”; the word “any” means “any and all”; the word “including” means “including but not limited to.” Any ambiguity in a request shall be construed to bring within the scope of the request all responses that otherwise could be construed to be outside of its scope.

3. The requests shall be deemed to be continuing so as to require supplemental productions as You obtain additional documents between the time of the initial production hereunder and the time of trial in these actions.

4. Each requested document shall be produced in its entirety, without abbreviation or redaction, and shall include all attachments, appendices, exhibits, lists, schedules or other documents at any time affixed thereto. If a document responsive to any request cannot be produced in full, it shall be produced to the extent possible with an explanation stating why production of the remainder is not possible.

5. You must produce responsive documents as they have been kept in the usual course of business or shall organize or label them to correspond to the enumerated requests of this Subpoena. If, after exercising due diligence to secure them, You cannot provide some or any of the requested documents, so state and provide all documents to the extent possible, specifying the reason for Your inability to produce the remainder of the documents, and stating whatever information or knowledge You have concerning each document not produced.

6. If any document is withheld under any claim of privilege, including without limitation, attorney-client privilege and attorney work product, You should provide the following information with respect to such document: (a) the date of the document; (b) the name of its author(s) or preparer(s); (c) the name of each person who was sent or furnished with the document or a copy thereof; (d) the title or description of the document sufficient to identify it without revealing the information for which privilege is claimed; (e) the claim of privilege under which it is withheld; and (f) a description of the subject matter of the document in sufficient detail to support Your contention that the document is privileged.

7. If any requested document or other document potentially relevant to this action is subject to destruction under any document retention or destruction program, the document(s) should be exempted from any scheduled destruction and should not be destroyed until the conclusion of this action or unless otherwise permitted by the Court.

8. If an objection is made to any request, state Your objection and the ground or grounds with particularity in Your written response. If an objection is made only to part of the request, identify that part in Your written response and state Your objection and the ground(s) therefore.

9. Unless otherwise specified, the time period covered by these requests is from January 1, 2005 to the present, and shall encompass all documents and information relating in whole or in part to such period.

10. Terms not specifically defined shall be given their ordinary meanings as You understand them to be used in the trade or pursuant to ordinary usage.
